

AMBEDKAR UNIVERSITY DELHI
CPSH ELECTION COMMISSION 2017
ELECTIONS OF STUDENT REPRESENTATIVES

CODE OF CONDUCT

The electoral process for election of student representatives to CPSH has started with the effect from 11 March 2017. The CPSH Election Commission has decided a code of conduct for the smooth functioning of the electoral process. All student members of AUD, particularly those contesting elections, are advised to note the following points and abide by them during the entire electoral process, especially while campaigning.

- 1) Use of any Public Address System, Cloth Banner, Flags, Printed Posters, Stickers and Vehicles as a part of the campaigning by the candidate or by some person acting on his/her behalf is prohibited.
- 2) All candidates are advised to refrain from using personal slander, making derogatory or inflammatory remarks or speeches.

Violation of the above mentioned rules should be brought to the notice of the Election Commission Chairperson in writing immediately for necessary action.
