

Centre for Development Practice
Ambedkar University Delhi

1st April 2019

Advertisement for the 3rd Rohini Ghadiok Foundation (RGF) fellow in Action Research

The Rohini Ghadiok Foundation (RGF) announces the award of a one year Fellowship for Action Research (in the rural) to the third cohort of MPhil Development Practice students at Ambedkar University Delhi (AUD). The selected Fellow shall be designated the Rohini Ghadiok Fellow for Action Research (in the rural) and shall be placed at the Centre for Development Practice (CDP), AUD.

The Fellowship amount: 4,00,000/- (which includes 3,96,000/- towards payment and the remaining 4,000/- towards the payment of group accident insurance and other incidentals per year) for one MPhil graduate, for a 1-year period.

The Fellowship obligates the grantee to use the grant funds only for the purposes for which the grant was made; it also provides for:

1. 3 monthly written reports to RGF; Monthly report to Director, CDP concerning the use of grant funds,
2. A final written report to RGF and
3. A detailed six monthly accounting of how grant funds were used to RGF.

RGF will have the authority to withhold and/or recover grant funds in case such funds are, or appear to be, misused. The selection of the Rohini Ghadiok Fellow for Action Research will be as per University rules and in consultation with the Trustees of RGF.

The Fellow should ideally build on the MPhil Development Practice Action Research work already undertaken in the two years of the MPhil programme; the Fellow should also have had publications and conference/seminar/workshop presentations of his or her work by now. The Fellow will be required to publish his or her work in relevant peer-reviewed journals, produce at least a 30,000 word Monograph as also produce material in the vernacular for the community he or she works with.

Interested applicants from the third cohort of the MPhil Development Practice students (who have been granted their MPhil degree) are encouraged to apply with a detailed Action Research Proposal (the Proposal should spell out the vision and philosophy of the transformative social praxis the Fellow shall engender in the rural community; it should have a clear demonstration as to how the current work builds on the applicant's MPhil Action Research work; including the actual steps and moves the applicant intends to take or make regarding the three year action research work) and a detailed resume.

Interested students may send their Action Research Proposal and a detailed resume to: cdp@aud.ac.in.

The last date of application (email applications) is 10th April, 2019.

Prof. Anup Dhar
Director
Centre for Development Practice
Ambedkar University Delhi