

AUD announces second cut-off

HT Correspondent

■ htreporters@hindustantimes.com

NEW DELHI: The Ambedkar university Delhi (AUD) on Monday released its second cut-off for admissions to undergraduate courses with a dip of 3-10 percentage point across courses. In the second list, cut-off for BA (Honours) with a major in History fell from 87% to 77 % for students from Delhi. Admission under the second cut-off list will begin from Tuesday. Applicants need to report to the university for fee payment and document submission from July 14 till July 16. The next cut-off list will be released on July 17.