

Ambedkar University Delhi

School of Liberal Studies

SOCIOLOGY SEMINAR SERIES

WINTER SEMESTER 2015

cordially invites you to a Talk on

Reading a History of Anxieties with the Visual:

Preliminary Questions Towards a Visual Method in Social Anthropology

by

Prof. Sasanka Perera

Discussant Prof. N. Jayaram,

Visiting Professor in Sociology at AUD

About the Speaker:

Prof. Sasanka Perera is Professor in the Department of Sociology and Dean at the Faculty of Social Sciences at the South Asian University, New Delhi. Prior to that, he was Professor and Head in the Department of Sociology, University of Colombo. Beyond a long-term interest in the politics of education, his other research interests include ethnicity, nationalism, the politics of violence, visual culture in South Asia and urban space. He is the editor of 'Society and Culture in South Asia' co-published by the department of Sociology, SAU and SAGE India. In his spare time, he engages in photography and writing poetry.

Wednesday, 18 March 2015

2:30 p.m.

CR 11, AUD

Please Contact for Queries:

Dr. Rinju Rasaily

e-mail: rinju@aud.ac.in