

MA Economics Entrance Test

The Entrance Test will be of 75 marks. There will be 3 sections. 30 Multiple choice questions (1 mark each), 10 Short questions (3 marks each) and a comprehension (15 marks).

The student is expected to have knowledge in all basic areas of an Undergraduate economics course: Micro-economics, Macro-Economics, International trade, Development Economics, Economic history, Public economics, Economic systems, Statistical applications, basic Mathematical applications and Current economic affairs. The applicant will be tested for basic theoretical/empirical knowledge of economics, analytical and application skills.