MPHIL DEVELOPMENT PRACTICE

The MPhil Programme in Development Practice is offered jointly by the School of Human Studies (SHS) and the School of Development Studies (SDS) in collaboration with PRADAN.

PRADAN is a public service organisation promoting and strengthening livelihoods of the rural poor. PRADAN works directly with the poor, through small teams of professionals, in the villages of Jharkhand, Odisha, Madhya Pradesh, Chhattisgarh, West Bengal, Rajasthan and Bihar.

One of the highlights of the Programme is the opportunity to connect with the other partners — Sir Dorabji Tata Trust (SDTT) and Rohini Ghadiok Foundation (RGF).

PROGRAMME DESCRIPTION

Development – as a concept has multiple connotations and the complexity of its many contours and trajectories have become an area of intense contestation in the social sciences and in what has now come to be known as the ‘development sector’. However, the practice of development has largely failed to address the lived experiences and the livelihood-health-governance-educational issues of a large segment of the rural population.

The MPhil in Development Practice, through an examination of the unexamined ‘underdevelopment of the rural’ and the equally unexamined ‘royal road to Development’, plans to help the student set-up a long-term and engaged relationship with the rural through an immersion-based training in rural contexts. In the process, it wishes to give birth to a Development Sector

Professional who would have the capacity to initiate social transformation in rural India. The student will thus have both the theoretical and the practical experience to imagine, initiate and give shape to transformative social action in community contexts. In keeping with AUD’s vision of social equity and engaged scholarship, the programme aims to link the transformation of the self to the larger goals of developmental justice and collective transformation.

The programme also re-visits the given idea of research through Action Research Projects. Action Research takes ‘transformation’ as the object/ area of enquiry and creates a body of knowledge based on existing research on transformation, or knowledge of transformation, and the actual practice of grassroots level transformative social action.

Courses offered in the Programme are geared to the fulfilment of these objectives.

Some Courses on the Theory of Practice:

- The Philosophy of Development Practice
- Understanding the Rural: Economy, Politics, Culture
- Inequality, Discrimination and Marginalisation in Rural Contexts
- Gender and Development
- Discourses on Justice and Well-Being
- Theories of Resistance, Collective Action, Transformation

Some Courses on the Vicissitudes of the Self:

- Experiencing the Self: Relating with Others
- Listening, Learning and Communicating
- Experiencing the Rural through Art, Literature and Film

Some Courses on the Practice of Theory:

- Engendering Rural Livelihoods
- Sustainable Natural Resource Management

Some Courses on Action Research:

- Research Methods
- Grassroots Engagement Methodology
- Participatory Rural Appraisal

The Programme also has a focus on making sense of collectivities through participation in Group Processes.
