

SEWA – Youth Connect 2015

Connecting two worlds

What is it?

- Youth mentoring program from Feb 2015 to empower, lead and learn
- Mentors: committed female students
- Mentees: underprivileged young girls aged 15-23 years
- Aim: learn about each other's world by building a personal relationship

What will you do?

- Dedicate 8 hours a month to change one girl's life
- Choose place, time and topic for meeting mentee
- Work on her English speaking skills
- Help her to build confidence, knowledge and self reliance
- Give a direction to an enriching future

Open to all female students!

Two way learning process

- Resolve real world challenges and improve skills in: leadership, youth development, strategizing, organization and communication
- Gain a SEWA certificate of achievement in association with the American Centre
- Life changing opportunity for you and your mentee!

"I became a mentor because I wanted to give. The thing I didn't realize is how much I would get" (Mentor, Youth Connect 2013-14)
