

The Times of India

Title : AUD online registration till today

Author :

Location :

New Delhi

Article Date : 06/23/2015

Last minute rush for online registration for all BA and MA programmes led to slowing down of the system forcing Ambedkar University Delhi to extend the application and fee payment time till 12 noon on Tuesday . The scheduled last date was till Saturday.

In an official statement released on Monday afternoon, media coordinator of AUD, Sharmistha Roy said that aspirants can continue registration for all BA and MA programmes till Tuesday noon. “Due to extraordinary rush for the online application process during the past two days leading to slowing down of the system, many candidates have been finding difficulty to register their application. Large numbers of applicants have paid the application fee, but were not able to submit the completed form.”

At undergraduate level AUD offers Bachelors Honours degrees with two options BA Honours with a major in single discipline and BA Honours with a major in social sciences and humanities. In the single discipline honours it offers major in Economics, English, History , Mathematics, Psychology and Sociology .

At masters level, for which applications process is under way , the university offers courses in MA in English, Sociology, History, Development Studies, Early Childhood Care and Education, Environment and Development, Gender Studies, Psychology , Economics, Visual Art, Literary Art (Creative Writing), Performance Studies, Film Studies, Social Design and Social Entrepreneurship.