for

BA (Honours) with major in Economics

The School of Undergraduate Studies (SUS) is the academic home for all undergraduate programmes. The seven BA Honours programmes offer students a unique liberal arts education that acquaints them with diverse approaches to knowledge. The undergraduate programmes at AUD offer students a wide choice of courses.

The School teaches students to think critically and creatively, to analyse and reason, to communicate effectively and to draw evidence-based conclusions. It aims to achieve a balance between the range and depth of the subjects studied.

The unique aspect of undergraduate programmes at AUD is that there are common modules for foundational skills comprising language, writing skills and communication skills. A typical BA Programme has four types of courses:

1. Foundation Compulsory Courses (12 Credits)
2. Foundation Optional Courses (4-8 Credits)
3. Discipline Courses (48-64 Credits)
4. Electives outside Discipline (16-32 Credits)

BA (Honours) with major in Economics

The BA Honours programme with a Major in Economics is designed to provide students with a basic yet rigorous training in the analysis of the economy, with emphasis on issues confronting developing economies like India. The aim is to expose students to different perspectives within the discipline and also be familiar with the social and political dimensions of economics.

Structure

The programme is delivered through a total number of 96 credits over six semesters. The programme consists of three types of discipline based courses: Core Required Courses, Core Optional Courses and Elective Courses.

Students have a range of electives to choose from. They may also transfer from one Major to another subject to certain criteria. The course comprises tutorial and lab sessions, workshops and seminars etc.
