

MA Education (ECCE), School of Education Studies IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR APPLICANTS

School of Education Studies (SES)

SES is envisioned to evolve as a community of professionals and scholars endeavouring to understand education in its historical and contemporary contexts, through engaged scholarship and practice. The School has two Master's programmes in Education: MA Education and MA Education (Early Childhood Care and Education). The MA Education programme was launched in 2012. It aims to develop a deeper understanding of theories in and practice of education, through multiple disciplinary perspectives. The MA Education (ECCE) programme was launched in 2014 in collaboration with Centre for Early Childhood Education and Development (CECED). This programme aims to build a nuanced understanding about the field of early childhood care and education and developmentally and contextually appropriate practices.

Centre for Early Childhood Education and Development (CECED)

CECED was established in 2009 as a resource centre with focus on evidence based advocacy and quality promotion and capacity building in ECCE. Its mission is to contribute towards the national goals of social justice and equity by promoting developmentally and contextually appropriate Early Childhood Education and Development (ECED), as every child's right to a sound foundation, and raising ECED to the forefront of policy formulation, and effective and universal programme implementation.

MA Education (Early Childhood Care & Education)

MA Education (ECCE) is proposed as a two year programme. The two-year programme involves rigorous engagement with educational theory, practice and policies. The courses of the MA Education (ECCE) have been conceptualised with the aim of creating human resources to support professional upgradation of quality of planning, supervision and management of ECCE programmes for young children. The second year courses of MA Education (ECCE) move towards a more in-depth and scholarly understanding of ECCE as a discipline, anchored in interdisciplinary engagement with multiple disciplines including child development, sociology, history, critical pedagogy, psychoanalytic frame, anthropology, and management.
