

PhD in Women's and Gender Studies, 2017 offered by Ambedkar University Delhi and Centre for Women's Development Studies (CWDS), Delhi

Women's and Gender Studies Ph.D. programme is conducted jointly by Ambedkar University Delhi and Centre for Women's Development Studies (Delhi) as part of collaboration between the two institutions. It creates a space for questioning silences around gender that steer the workings of caste, class and community in contemporary and historical societies, and in the social sciences.

PhD in Women's and Gender Studies: The Women's and Gender Studies programme is currently inviting applications from eligible candidates for the 2017 batch starting from January, 2017. The details are given below:

No. of Seats: 10

Admissions will be made in accordance with the reservation policies of the Government of NCT of Delhi in respect of various social groups and other categories as applicable to institutions of higher education. Applicants claiming the benefit of reservations will have to produce the requisite certificates from the competent authorities.

Eligibility

- i. Those who have completed MPhil in Women's and Gender Studies or in a related Social Sciences or Humanities discipline.
- ii. Those who have a Masters' degree with at least 55% marks or equivalent grade from a recognised University (50% in case of SC/ST candidates) along with at least two years of work experience or publications in a related field.
- iii. The requirement of at least 55% marks or equivalent grade from a recognised University (50% in case of SC/ST candidates) at the Masters' level is also applicable to those with an M.Phil. Degree.

Course Work:

Direct PhD in Women's and Gender Studies entails mandatory course work as allocated to the student. It will include specific courses designed to strengthen the core areas of research of each student and courses on methodology, theory or movements as required. The total number of credits of course work will depend on how many courses are allocated to each student and will vary accordingly. Candidates holding the MPhil degree in an area/discipline unrelated to Women's and Gender Studies could be required to complete additional courses as determined by the Research Studies Committee (RSC). Even those PhD candidates, who already hold an MPhil degree in areas pertaining to Women's and Gender Studies, may be asked to undertake some of our MPhil courses. The RSC could decide that research on the proposed topic requires a particular kind of preparation that the scholar has not yet obtained in her/his education and training and accordingly recommend the same.

Fellowships and Stipend

- 1. AUD extends full fee waiver to all students belonging to SC, ST and PwD categories (please keep your certificates ready for admissions).
2. Successful Ph.D. candidates will be eligible to apply for ICSSR Doctoral Fellowships through the CWDS, for which there is a separate application process including interview which will be undertaken after formal registration in the Ph.D. programme.
