

MPhil and PhD Programmes in History

School of Liberal Studies, AUD

Admissions 2018

School of Liberal Studies, AUD offers admission to MPhil and PhD Programmes in History that encourage scholars to explore a wide range of subjects in Indian and South Asian History. Emphasis is placed on exploring and expanding complex methodologies necessary to carry out such research, with a view to evolve interdisciplinary and connected approach to historical studies. The Research Programme in History also expects its research scholars to actively contribute to the intellectual life of the University through regular sharing of their work with the faculty and their fellow students.

Specialization: The following are some of the areas in which research supervision may be possible in History at AUD: Medieval, Modern and Contemporary Indian Political, Economic and Social History with specific focus on Partition, Labour History, Urban History, Gender History, Environmental History, Histories of Regions (Punjab, North East India, Rajasthan), Oral History, Frontier Histories, Histories of the Sacred, History of Science, Disease and Medicine, History of Famine and Philanthropy. Along with these, supervision may also be possible in Migration and Diaspora Histories and Histories of the Modern British Empire and European political thought.

Duration of the Programme and Course Work: Normal duration of M. Phil. Programme is 2 years (4 semesters) and of Ph. D. Programme 5 years (10 semesters).

A Research Advisory Committee shall be constituted for each M. Phil./Ph. D. Scholar within six months of admission, which will be responsible for advising the scholar and monitoring his/her research up till the completion of the degree.

Course work of the M. Phil. Programme consists of four courses of four credits each (total = 16 credits).

The courses on offer are as follows:

Course I (SLS3H001): Historical Methods.

Course II (SLS3H002): Studying India's Past: Traditions and New Approaches.

Course III (SLS3h003): Research Paper I- Historiographical Essay/Seminar focusing on the theme of proposed research topic of the student.

Course IV (SLS3h004): Research Paper II- Seminar/Essay on a theme agreed between the research scholar and the Research Advisory Committee (RAC) keeping in view his/her proposed research topic. It should be based on primary sources.

Some Doctoral candidates could also be prescribed part of the same course work by the RAC, with the approval of the Research Studies Committee (RSC) of the School.

Course work will be followed by writing of Dissertation/Thesis. The RAC decides benchmarks of measuring progress during the process of writing dissertation. Following the successful completion of course work a research scholar would be expected to successfully defend a Synopsis, which will be presented to the the History faculty and the Research Studies Committee. Prior to the submission of the Dissertation/Thesis, a Research Scholar would be required to make a Pre-Submission Presentation to the History Faculty as well as to the Research Studies Committee of the SLS.

Participation in course work presumes a scholar's residence in Delhi region during the officially recognised academic year/ sessions and the scholar's regular attendance of classes and related exercises. Exceptions to the 'residency requirement' could be for scholars who are prescribed course work or 'pre-thesis' learning activities of a kind which cannot be fulfilled at AUD or which the Research Studies Committee specifically prescribes to be done in some other place/under special conditions.
