PhD History: Applicants Eligible for Interview on 7 August 2018

The applicants named below have been found eligible to participate in the interviews of the 2018 PhD History programme admission process and are therefore called to attend the interview session on Tuesday, 7 August 2018 on the Kashmere Gate campus (venue to be announced) between 10 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. Applicants absenting themselves from the interview session will be excluded from further consideration.

Candidates must bring their application receipts/admit cards, a valid form of identification (containing their photograph) and a printed copy of the research proposal that was uploaded with their applications. Each candidate is expected to briefly introduce her or his research proposal in not more than 15 minutes. The interviewing faculty shall ask candidates about their proposed research areas or about their answers to entrance test questions or about other issues relevant to research in order to evaluate candidates' potential to complete the research programme.

Candidates who are unable to participate in an interview at the designated time for some excusable reason (for example, travel conditions) must contact the Programme Coordinator (pcreshistory@aud.ac.in) no later than 4 August. Reasonable adjustments shall be made to accommodate them but interviews can only happen on 6 & 7 August.

For additional information about the admission process, see the website and the 'Bulletin of Information' under 'PhD in History', or email pcreshistory@aud.ac.in.
