Ambedkar University Delhi (AUD) has issued its sixth cut-off list for admission into the several BA(H) programmes it offers. Apart from BA(H) in psychology, seats are available for both students from NCT and outside NCT.

For BA(H) in Economics, NCT students from the commerce stream need 88.25%, while those from the arts stream need 83.25%. For English, history and sociology, NCT students from the arts stream need 82%, 80% and 82.5% respectively. In the reserved category however, most seats have been filled.

For BA(H) in mathematics, NCT students from the science stream need 83.25% and those from the commerce stream need 84.25%. In the initial call for admissions for BA(H) mathematics, there were no applicants from the ST, SC and PwD categories.

To fill vacant seats, AUD has announced that candidates from the reserved category who had not applied for the course earlier can apply now. Candidates may apply at AUD's Kashmere Gate campus and pay the application fee in cash on Thursday between 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. Admissions under this list can be completed till 4 p.m. on Thursday.
