

Centre for Development Practice
Ambedkar University Delhi

16 August 2019

Call for Applications: 1 (one) Faculty position under NTFP Project

The Centre for Development Practice at Ambedkar University Delhi (hereon referred to as CDP) invites applications for 1 (one) faculty position under the Non Timber Forest Produce (NTFP) project housed at CDP. The centre is looking for applicants with considerable experience of being engaged in projects related to political economy and political ecology with a sound understanding of the development sector, which is the primary focus of the NTFP project.

The roles and responsibilities of the position are as mentioned below:

1. Provide inputs and design project strategies along with the team at CDP
2. Ensure project commitments and deliverables are met
3. Oversee project accounts and reporting
4. Facilitate stakeholder/partner communication and coordination
5. Plan and visit students, stakeholders and partners working in various CDP field sites

The position will be offered on a temporary contractual basis from September 2019 to November 2019 which might be extended at the end of the contract period based on performance and requirement.

Interested applicants are required to mail their resume (CV) along with a letter of intent (LOI) describing their work/areas of interest to cdp@aud.ac.in. The last date for applying is 23 August 2019.

Prof. Anup Dhar
Director
Centre for Development Practice
Ambedkar University Delhi