Theme of the Activity:	Folk Art, Culture, Tourism, Development
Activity Date(s):	17 th March 2023	No. of Participants:	30
Brief Description of the Activity:
In the series of G20 events, the School of Letters organised a Lecture and Live Demonstration by renowned Phad artist and two-times National Awardee Shri Kalyan Joshi. Shri Joshi shared that “Phad visually represents the Epic of Pabuji and the Epic of Devnarayan, two very significant folk epic traditions of Rajasthan. The performance of these epics is integrally and seamlessly woven together with the verbal description of the Visual Phad.” The Joshi family of Shahpura, to which Kalyan Ji belongs, have been making these famous Phads since the 13th Century. Artists from this family have been internationally celebrated and venerated for their finesse and perseverance. They have worked relentlessly to preserve a very significant Indian Knowledge Tradition.
