Name of the Activity:	G20 Outreach and Extension_CSWG_Interaction with French author
Theme of the Activity:	Interaction with French author Corinne Morel Delaux
Activity Date(s):	03 March 2023	No. of Participants:	25
Brief Description of the Activity:
Corinne Morel Delaux is one of the 20 French authors visiting the World Book Fair in New Delhi, where France (a G20 nation) is the guest of honour. She writes literature for children, young adults and adults. She talked about her journey of becoming a writer, after being in policy making for many years, being active in environment and climate change movements and other social campaigns in France. She discussed at length her first novel which was published in 2022, which is like a fable and engages with the importance of being amidst nature, which is fast disappearing through the urban lives of most people. The importance of birds, animals, creatures in the oceans all came through the discussion. She engaged with questions on utopia
Brief Description of Participants (like industry experts, students, faculty etc):
Along with the author, a representative from the French India Institute had also accompanied. From the university, students and faculty from comparative literature, english, sociology, psychology and public health attended the engaging interaction.
