Activity Date(s):	27 th March 2023	No. of Participants:	61
Brief Description of the Activity:
The Inter-University Photography competition was conducted by the School of Heritage Research and Management, of Dr. B.R. Ambedkar University Delhi on the theme “Delhi: A Heritage City”. The event was organized to create awareness about the importance of awareness and documentation of Heritage towards Preservation, Protection, Promotion and create a sense of belonging about the cultural diversity of the country among young college/university going students in Delhi. Without memory there is no identity or sense of belonging. The past is not only static but also a gateway to the future. Photography of Heritage or what is constructed as heritage through the camera is one of the best ways to disseminate information of the past to our future generation. It is a valuable learning process of composing the subject and interpreting their values. Through this exercise the students learnt the importance of visual communication and the importance of India’s cultural heritage. The event received tremendous response, in a very short time, with the participation of 61 students from pan India. Criteria for Selecting Winners: Focus, Depth, Perspective, Suitable Caption of the Photo (submitting all the documents as per rules) The winners First: Pumang Kumar Gupta, Department of Political Science, University of Delhi (Rs 6000/=) Second: Saquib Jamil: Humayun's Tomb, MA Development Studies (Rs 4000/=) Third (2): Himanshu Kumar, Guru Gobind Singh Indraprastha University and Sagar Kumar, MA Literary Art, Dr B R Ambedkar University Delhi.
