

Ambedkar varsity admission schedule out, sign up till Jun 24

New Delhi:

Ambedkar University Delhi (AUD) on Friday announced its admission schedule for undergraduate programmes for the academic session 2019-20. The registration forms were made available online from May 3 and last date for registration is June 24, 2019.

The university offers seven BA (Honours) programmes in Kashmere Gate campus, four BA and three B Voc programmes in Karampura campus, having 541 seats in total.

The registration process for the undergraduate programmes will be completely online for all categories. The details of registration process and subsequent procedures are provided in the bulletin of information, which is available online and can be downloaded.

Under vocational studies AUD offers undergraduate programmes in tourism and hospitality, retail management, and early childhood centre management and entrepreneurship. It also offers BA in law and politics, global studies, sustainable urbanism, and social sciences and humanities, among others. Under the traditional liberal arts programme it offers BA in economics, history, psychology, English, mathematics and sociology.

The university also opened the online registration for postgraduate admission from Thursday. The last date for registration for postgraduate admissions is also June 24, 2019.

AUD offers 18 postgraduate programmes having 618 seats in total. 13 programmes are in Kashmere Gate campus, three programmes in Karampura campus and two programmes in Lodhi Road Campus.

Apart from the traditional liberal arts programmes, the university also offers post-graduation in film studies, literary art, visual art, performance studies and gender studies. TNN
