

Centre for Development Practice
Ambedkar University Delhi

19 October 2020

Call for Applications - CDP Fellow in Action Research

The Centre for Development Practice (CDP), Ambedkar University Delhi (AUD) invites applications for the post of 'Fellow in Action Research'. This is a one-year fellowship which may be extended up to a maximum of two years based on evaluation of action research work.

Requirements:

- 1) Action Research Proposal with full
 - a) Documentation of at least 2 years of past action research work
 - b) Documentation of ongoing action research work of at least 1 year
 - c) plan and timeline for action research work in the next 1 year with outcome and output as also evaluation indices at the grass root level and with communities

2) Publications

The applicants' "written work", "published work", and processes of transformative social action in the field shall be looked into. An assessment shall be conducted in the field in the presence of the group/community with which the applicant has co-generated transformative social praxis. The fellows will be expected to work towards building a CDP Rural Center at the grass roots level.

Remuneration:

The selected fellow will be paid a consolidated amount of Rs. 30,000/- (Thirty thousand only) per month.

Reporting:

The CDP Fellow in Action Research will be expected to submit a full monthly report based on which the monthly fellowship amount will be released, a detailed six month progress report along with a final report at the end of one year; as also publications. The fellow will have to make a final presentation based on which he/she may request for extension of fellowship.

All those who are interested to apply for the fellowship should send their CV along with their action research proposal to cdp@aud.ac.in latest by 10 November 2020. The shortlisted candidates will be required to present their proposal to a selection panel.

Prof. Anup Dhar
Director
Centre for Development Practice